

Deporvillage, the fastest growing sports ecommerce in Europe, according to the Financial Times

The FT1000 ranking comprises the companies with the highest growth in Europe between 2013 and 2016.

The Spanish ecommerce Deporvillage has been positioned as the online sports shop with the strongest growth in Europe, according to the ranking FT1000, developed by the Financial Times. The list includes the Top 1.000 companies in Europe that have achieved the highest percentage growth in revenues between 2013 and 2016. Among the ranking companies, technology has been the sector which drives the main growth.

Deporvillage has closed 2017 with 35 million euros in revenues, with a growth rate of 60%, after doubling revenues in 2016, hitting the 22 million euros. Consequently, the forecasts for the current year are positive, keeping the double-digit growth. The company has reached one million orders and is focused on consolidating the business in the European countries where has presence and preparing for the launch of its private brand.

Deporvillage shares the ranking with other three companies supported by SeedRocket, which are Marfeel Solutions (advertising; 16), Kantox (Fintech; 63) and Ulabox (ecommerce; 485). The complete list would be published in April 30th in the print edition of the Financial Times, as part of a special report titled "FT1000: Europe's Fastest-Growing Companies".

About Deporvillage

Founded in 2010 by Xavier Pladellorens and Àngel Corcuera, Deporvillage is the Spanish online shop specialized in sports equipment leader in Spain, and one of the references in Europe. It is specialized in cycling, running, triathlon, swimming, fitness and outdoor activities, and it sells in Spain, France, Italy and Portugal more than 40.000 products from 500 first level brands. It has around 600.000 customers and more than one million of visits monthly. Along its career, it has got the support of SeedRocket, represented by David Tomás from CyberClick and the inversor Cabiedes & Partners. Additionally, other important companies of Venture Capital, as the Spanish Samaipata and the Italian P101, are members of its shareholding, as well as Grupo Mediaset.

More information: www.deporvillage.com